Agreement between studio music teacher and student/ parent

- 1. Lessons will be provided once a week, for ___ minutes and will be paid at the beginning of each term.*
- 2. At least five weeks notification will be required of any extended absences.*
- 3. Missed lessons will be paid for, unless the music teacher is satisfied of there being special circumstances or the teacher has been previously informed and agreed to waive the fee.*
- 4. The music teacher is to be informed of any health problems or learning difficulties that may impede the student's progress.*
- 5. The music teacher will only enter the student for examinations, scholarships or competitions with student and/or parental consent. The choice of which examination, scholarship or competition is best suited to the student is to be undertaken by the teacher.*
- 6. Attendance at end of semester concerts is expected and will be in place of the last lesson of the semester.*
- 7. A decision to discontinue lessons, either by teacher or student and parent(s), requires formal notification five weeks prior to the end of term, or by negotiation in exceptional circumstances. For the new year, notification at the final lesson of the previous year is considered due notice.*
- 8. Regular practice is essential and expected. Lessons may be discontinued if there is evidence of no practice after at least three consecutive lessons.*
